RADICALS JAILED

Inary examinations to those in the county jail. The cards which most of these men have on their persons showing they are members of the Russian Workers' Union are the main identity available at present which classes them as dangerous persons for this country. These men will be taken immediately to Pittsburgh under heavy guard, where they may lie in jail all winter until a port to Russia is open for them.

One or two detectives were sworn in this afternoon at the marshal's office, these men, some of them young in years, pledged to work faithfully and secretly over the field. Lists of every Y. W. member in this county as well as others have been obtained and it is an easy matter now to go after the guilty parties. Russians themselves in one or two instances are leading officers in this city to hiding places where they may pick out their quarry.

The work done by these detectives and government agents has been going on for a long time. All communication which comes to them from headquarters comes in code and each man is instructed to work along different lines. To those not familiar with court house visitors, the number of unimportant looking individuals who go back and forth through the dim halls attract little attention. These men are many of them doing some of the most important work being done in the country at the present time.

No Bolshevik will be allowed visitors of any kind in the county jail, either relatives or lawyer. Not even the names of the men jailed will be made public. Four additional men were arrested and placed there this morning.

Begin last week when matters began to come to a head, courthouse deputies filled the sheriff's office with stacks of long guns and ammunition and each man put on a new cartridge belt and went about awed at the prospect of dangerous work.

Most of the Russian leaders were known and deputies were stationed at various points in the city and at mining towns and the men wanted were picked off as they passed along the street or got off street cars. Many secret workers added the officers. Every man not naturalized is to be suspected during the next few weeks and examinations will be conducted thoroughly, yesterday morning at the jail Ensign O'Brien with his corps of religious instructors who conduct religious services there each Sunday were refused admittance. Jailor Buckley has been instructed not to give out any names of persons there.

Cards belonging to the Reds in nearly every case have been found on their persons showing dues paid up to date in the Bolshevik society to which they belong.

Colonel Walker left today at noon for Martinsburg and will not be back for a number of days. He keeps close
